To Open Vets' Night School At N.H.S. Tues.

The first lecture in a vocational course for veterans will be held at Newmarket high school Tuesday night at 7.45. The V.L.A. is sponsoring a Winter Construction course for which any qualified veteran is eligible. There will be no charge for the course which will last several weeks.

The Winter Construction course is sponsored particularly for veterans who are planning to build their own homes next year. Veterans will obtain their own plans and follow them through their studies. There will be some practical instruction as well as the lectures in theory.

Subjects will include masonry, plumbing, carpentry, heating and wiring. It will include every aspect of building from the basement to the roof.

Veterans Guests of Lions At Remembrance Night

Members of the executives of the Newmarket Veterans Association, the Newmarket branch of the Canadian Legion, and the Air Force Association were guests on Monday of the Newmarket Lions club at a Remembrance Day meeting. Last Post and Reveille were sounded and two minutes of silence observed.

The program was in the charge of K. M. R. Stiver and his committee and included the documentary film of the Allied advance from the landing in Europe until V.E. Day. The film was an impressive reminder of how many countries and the three services worked together to liberate Europe.

These November hunters call themselves the Buckhorn club and they obviously had a successful hunt last week in the Burks Falls district. Top row left to right are Don Wright, Jay Jefferson and Harry Landry and kneeling are Bob Shanks, Robert J. Bunn and Nelson Shanks. Of course the dogs are members of the club too. Harry Landry shot the large seven-point buck on the right which weighed over 200 pounds. The others were shot by Bruce Shanks, Don Wright and Nelson Shanks. They were hunting all of last week except for two rainy days. Era and Express photo.

Aurora Mayor Alex Bell Last Year's Dark Horse, Says He Will Run Again

Mayor Alex. Bell, Aurora, has announced his intention to run for re-election in December. The mayor was the dark horse in last year's nomination list. He was elected to office without previous council experience and has made a success of his first year in public office by applying the practical methods to municipal affairs which made him one of Aurora's most successful businessmen. Before his election he had retired from active business and during the past year has been able to devote his time to the affairs of the town.

Running for re-election with the mayor will be Reeve A. A. Cook, councillor James Murray and Councillor Cliff Corbett. Councillor Don Glass, when asked about his intention of running again, said that work on council demanded a great deal of personal sacrifice and added that he felt his business associates should be considered in his final decision about running for office.

Among those who have not yet decided whether they will run are Councillor Chas. Davies who has had four years' experience as a member of council, Deputy Reeve Harry Corner who has held office for three years and Councillors Pringle and Jones.

Newmarket Lions Club Starts Christmas Fund With Objective $1,000.

The Newmarket Lions club has opened its Christmas Basket Fund with an objective of $1,000. Last year, the club raised between $800 and $900 for this worthy undertaking. Contributions can be made directly to any of the three banks or to The Era and Express office. As has been the practice in other years, the contributions will be acknowledged through the columns of The Era and Express.

The names for the Christmas Basket list are given to the club by local agencies such as health nurses, the town clerk and organizations. Names of families in difficult circumstances are also sent in by members. The situation of each family is checked by the club to avoid duplication and to assure that each basket goes to those who need it most.

The baskets are made up according to the needs of each family. Where there are many children, the club tries to include a toy for each child as well as clothing and food.

The club tries to see that the families receiving the baskets are not provided with food alone for Christmas dinner, but with something extra which will make all the difference towards a happy Christmas Day. The children at least will have a gift of their own.

This year's Christmas Basket fund list has more than 80 families on it and includes more than 200 children. The contributions

Aurora Poppy Fund Nears the $500. Mark

With several tag boxes from outlying districts still to be collected, Mrs. George Duffield, chairman of the Aurora Poppy Day Fund has announced that this year's campaign for funds was successful.

"Last year we sold $475 worth of wreaths and poppies. From the present count and not anticipating the amount from the country districts we will equal this figure again this year", said Mrs. Duffield.

Mrs. Norman Bretz was in charge of the poppies and Mrs. Duffield, the sale of wreaths.

The fund receives from those who support it will mean all the difference for some people's Christmas. Make your own Christmas the happier for yourself by helping those less fortunate.

Town And War Veterans Hold Fitting Remembrance Services

A simple but fitting service was held just before 11 o'clock at the D'Arcy St. cenotaph in Newmarket on November 11. The town paid tribute to Newmarket men who died in world wars as the mayor and representatives from veterans' associations and other organizations laid wreaths.

Rev. James T. Rhodes gave a short address before the period of silence which expressed the same feelings of the townspeople who gathered at the memorial. The service which was well planned by a committee of Legion members and Councillors Lorne Paynter and Charles VanZant was timed perfectly to end at the observance of two minutes' silence at 11 o'clock.

Members of the United Church choir, the Newmarket Veterans' Association, the Canadian Legion and members of council took part in the service. Councillor J. O. Dales recited O Valiant Hearts and the choir sang O Canada.

On Sunday the Newmarket branch of the Canadian Legion held a church parade with the Newmarket Veterans' Association and other veterans. Over 90 took part. The parade went to St. Paul's Anglican church. A sermon by Rev. Rhodes was based on verses 1 to -5, Ecclesiastes, chapter 44, which observed that some men died and no memorials are raised to them.

The organist, J. Willis, and a full choir assisted in the service. A contingent from the Mount Albert branch of the Legion and the newly formed Bradford branch also attended the service. After the parade sandwiches and coffee were served by the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Newmarket branch.

Dedicate Flag At Scout, Guide Church Parade

The Scouts, Guides, Cubs and Brownies of Newmarket held a church parade to St. Andrew's Presbyterian church for the evening service on Sunday, Nov. 12, when the Union Jack of the Girl Guide company was dedicated.

Eleanor Smith, color bearer, escorted by Guides Betty McArthur and Sandra Watt, brought the flag to the communion table. Following the dedication by Dr. M. E. R. Boudreau, the flag was presented to Mrs. S. W. Otton representing the Guide Local Association who in turn presented the flag to the Guide captain, Mrs. Earby Thompson.

The choir under the direction of Herman Fowler sang "Give Peace in Our Time, O Lord". In his sermon which was based on the text, "Behold thy mother", Dr. Boudreau told the boys and girls present that they should respect their parents and be ready to obey them. Scout and Guide prayers were used in the service.

Representing the Guide local association were Mrs. S. W. Otton and Mrs. Elman Campbell. The parade was led by the district commissioner, Mrs. M. E. R. Boudreau, and the other leaders present included Mrs. Earby Thompson and Mrs. Grant Dillane of the Guides, Mrs. Ray Sherrard and Miss Grace Colclough of the Brownies, Doug Cockburn of the Scouts and Charles Wass and son, Lorne, of the Cubs. Township Gives Approval On Town Annexation To Yonge St. Highway

The annexation of land from Newmarket to Yonge St. has been favored by the Whitchurch township council. In September, committees from Whitchurch and Newmarket discussed the annexation by Newmarket of land between Davis Dr. and Eagle St. west of the town. Whitchurch first suggested straightening the town boundary but last Saturday the council passed a resolution not to oppose the annexation of the entire 275 acres to Yonge St.

"Taking a long term view, the annexation of this property by Newmarket may be for the best," said Reeve Ed Logan at Whitchurch council's regular meeting.

The land has a total assessment of $48,150 in Whitchurch, made up of $15,000 on land, $31,550 on buildings and $1,000 on business assessment. However, since the section is being built up, the council foresees heavy expenditures in the future for municipal services.

The largest section consists of 98 acres belonging to the Crossland division which has an assessment of $4,500.

Straightening the boundary line without going to Yonge St. would have been a costly survey according to Whitchurch officials. The change would have meant a loss of $30,000 assessment instead of $48,150.

It was pointed out that the township would soon face the need for another school in the area. The section is developing rapidly and there is a possibility that water may be piped from the town to the York County Home on Yonge St. Should a pipe be laid, residents in the area would wish to tap the water line bringing further expenditures to Whitchurch.

Although the town council of Newmarket has not made a final decision on the annexation, it is expected that it will go ahead with the plan. When annexation proceeds, affected property owners in the area will be notified and a date will be set for a ratepayers' hearing.

Will Take Day In Jail Merchant Declares, Ignores Parking Fine

Jim Sleigh, a Newmarket merchant, says he will spend a day in jail before he will pay a municipal parking fine. Mr. Sleigh said yesterday that he is "tired of paying out fines". There are parking meters in front of his store and "no parking" restrictions on Cedar St. behind the store.

"We have to use our truck on the street for loading and unloading heavy electrical equipment," said Mr. Sleigh, co-owner of the Newmarket Radio Electric store. On Main St., in front of the store there are parking meter court costs," he said. "I'm going around once to give them an argument but still had to pay $2 and court costs." He said that it was difficult to keep running down to the parking lot when deliveries were to be made.

Seek Better Protection For Oak Ridges After Disastrous Fire

The Oak Ridges and Lake Wilcox Ratepayers' Association has swung into action towards providing more adequate fire protection for that community. The destruction by fire last week of the Stenden establishment, leaving three families homeless, emphasizes the need for fire protection on the spot.

Last night, at a meeting of the association, a fire committee of Stan Hart, Dan Melver and Geo. Farquharson was appointed to inventory what fire equipment is available in the district and to investigate the possibilities of a tank truck which could ensure a ready supply of water at fires.

Firemen fighting the Stenden fire last Monday were handicapped by lack of adequate water. The efficiency of a tank truck was shown the same morning at the fire at Col. Dunham's home near Newmarket when the Holland Landing tank truck arrived as other water sources were running out.

The committee was asked to approach the clerks of both King and Whitchurch twps. on the possibility that these municipalities would share the cost of such protection.

The association also appointed a delegate to meet with the Oak Ridges Home and School Association in discussion of a spotlight in front of the school. The association has been actively working for a safe crossing for the children but so far, with not much success.

The meeting was chaired by the president, E. L. McCarron, who is the association's choice for Whitchurch twp. council candidate from that section of the township. Mr. McCarron is urging support for his candidacy.

said that he was being given every encouragement by the interest shown in the township.

Pay Sister Social Call, Brothers Not Recognized

When Sherman Morrison, 22, and his brother, Mickey, 19, formerly of Dawson Creek, Peace River, now of London, Ont., paid a call on their sister, Mrs. Alex Campbell, King, a few days ago, she said "hello" as if they were strangers. To her they were persons whom she had never seen before, tall, full-bodied young men, probably friends of her husband. She even asked the older one to "bring his pal into the living room".

It made a difference when they called her Hazel and she quickly tried to recall when and where she had met them.

The visitors' identities disclosed, Mrs. Campbell would scarcely believe five years could change her brothers into grown men. They were boys when she and her husband visited the Dawson Creek home, she said. "Mickey was 12 and in public school when I saw him last. Now he is six feet tall." A sister in New Jersey was telephoned and if all goes well, all four will spend Christmas together at the Campbell home.

The Morrison brothers have been employed by Mannes Construction on the Alaskan highway until two weeks ago when they transferred with the company to London, for a huge dam construction project. They are to remain there for a year.

Naturalists have disproven the old belief that a snake will swallow its young if attacked.

KING CITY AND DISTRICT

Need Of Hall Stressed
By Accomodation Lack Public Support Grows

The need of a community hall for King is becoming more pronounced in the village and in the surrounding district. An interested group including Mr. J. L. Grew, chairman of King Memorial Library board, with Mrs.
Grew and Mrs. A. E. Jarvis, president of King W.I., paid an informal visit to Bond Head hall on Saturday afternoon.

The overall plan of the building met with their approval. An interview with a contractor who had done much of the work there was helpful in ideas of expenditures. Voluntary labor for the Bond Head hall was a prominent factor towards construction.

Lack of accomodation was demonstrated at the turkey supper which had to be served in a church basement and the Masonic Hall at the same time to nearly 500 people, last week. Other instances of a similar nature would seem to place public opinion behind a movement for a proposed hall.

Lake Marie and King Athletic Association, which has proposed the project, backed by the Women's Institute, has already taken steps toward the proposed project. Not only do the sports organizations require accommodation, but the library is in dire need of suitable quarters.

W.A. Profits
A substantial profit was made by Eversley Presbyterian W.A.
at the November bazaar held in King. At a meeting held at the home of Mrs. Aubrey Wade, Nov.
7, members agreed to stand the cost of an oil heater which has been placed in the church to replace the "wood stove". Fifty dollars was donated to the church session board.

Youth Worker Speaks
Miss Lois Lamb, youth worker for the Toronto diocese, gave an interesting talk to the Girls' Auxiliary of All Saints church recently, outlining the aims of the auxiliary in their broad sense of "Prayer, Learn, Work and Give" for missions at home and abroad. She stressed forms of recreation in the general program, demonstrating several folk dances in which members participated. The older girls of the G.A. have begun to study nursing and cooking.

Crowds At All Saints Supper Upwards of 500 enjoyed the turkey dinner sponsored by the Woman's Auxiliary of All Saints
Anglican church on Nov. 9.
Twenty heavy-weight turkeys and more than 100 pies satisfied hearty appetites. Patrons came from as far away as Toronto.
The "carving brigade" of J. L.
Grew, Morgan Baker, Ross Walker and A. E. Jarvis did a good job, leaving nothing but bare carcasses of the birds to tell the tale of success. The use of English canary colored petal-ware china and some stainless steel cutlery purchased by the W.A. for the occasion brightened the tables.

On Saturday, Dec. 9, the W.A. will have a bazaar in the church room.
To Preach at King, Oak Ridges
On Sunday, Nov. 19, Rev. Cannon Ramsay Armitage D.D., principal of Wycliffe College, Toronto, will preach at All Saints Anglican church, King, at 10 o'clock in the morning and afterward at 11.45 a.m. at St. John's church, Oak Ridges (at Jefferson).

Clothing Bale for Overseas
Members of the Sunday school and congregation of King United church will send a bale of clothing to supplement the relief work being carried on by the L.A.R.A.
Beginning Nov. 19, donations will be received at the King church, to continue until the bale is packed.

When it is known that 4,000 aged refugees in Germany need clothing and bedding; 200 Protestant pastors in Italy require bedding and clothing; 900 boys in three church schools in Greece are in great need of clothes; 1,000 babies in Europe, Japan and Korea need layettes and that Korea and Japan likewise need supplies, there is no doubt Canadians can and will continue to give relief. Mrs. M. R. Jenkinson told these facts to the King United W.M.S. at a meeting held at the home of the president, Mrs.
Collin Stewart, Nov. 9. The Canadian depots for the United church are at Toronto and Winnipeg.

W.M.S. to Sponsor Sale Booth
The W.M.S. of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church will sponsor a refreshment booth at the auction sale of Norman D. MacMurch, con. 6, on Nov. 23. The stand will be set up in the house.
This was decided at the November meeting held at the home of Mrs. Frank Dove, when readings were given by Mrs. J. Pickell, Mrs. Frank Dove and Kate Port.
Election of officers will be held at the December meeting.

Newlyweds Given Presentation
Mr. and Mrs. Roy Richards of Guelph were presented with a floor lamp at a community gathering held in Laskay hall on Saturday evening, attended by 140 representing King and Vaughan districts. Lorne Scott read the congratulatory address, presenting the gift on behalf of a wide circle of friends. Refreshments were served, followed by a dance played by the Sally Lloyd orchestra.

The couple was married in September. The bride was the former Ruth Oliver of Teston and the groom is the son of Mr.
and Mrs. Jesse Richards of King.
The groom is taking his last year agriculture course at the Guelph college and his wife has a secretarial position at the O.A.C.

King Man Named Director
With Maj.-Gen. A. Bruce Matthews, Charles W. F. Burns of King has been elected a member of the board of directors of Maple Leaf Gardens at Saturday's annual meeting. A successful business man, Mr. Burns also shares directorship of the Toronto Baseball club.

Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Winter, Dennis and Connie, left for Barrie on Monday where they will make their home. Their house at King has been rented. Mr.
Winter is a chief cook with Dominion Catering at Camp Borden, where Dennis will find steady employment. Connie expects to find work in Barrie.
Their son, Rollie, is remaining at Maple. He will be married to Miss Doreen Noble, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Noble, King, on Saturday, Nov. 25. Doreen is a member of the King telephone exchange staff, and expects to transfer to the Maple office after the honeymoon. They intend to reside at Maple.

On Sunday, Nov. 5, a daughter was born to Mrs. Gordon Patton, Toronto, and the late Gordon Patton at the Women's College hospital. The little girl is a granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs.
James Patton of King.

Mrs. John Gillies, Richmond
Hill, was the guest of Mrs. William Boys, at her Laskay home last week.

Mr. and Mrs. George Scott and their two children Nora and June of Toronto are staying with Mrs. G. D. Lockhart while making preparations to move into their new home, opposite King school, the home was built by contractor R. H. Benson of King.

Mr. Roy Bowen has purchased the livestock and cartage business from Bob Walker. He will vacate his farm at the third concession in the spring, when he will move to King village. Operation of this business has already commenced.

"The man on the street" says there is plenty of cash for ready buying these days. If so the Christmas bazaars in view should do well. Laskay W.I. will hold a bazaar, afternoon tea and draws in Laskay hall on Nov. 25.
The W.A. of the United church will sponsor a full-featured bazaar in the church basement at King on Tuesday afternoon, Nov.
26.

Eight new modern desks and seats have been placed in King school by the trustee board.
Mr. and Mrs. Roy Richards, Guelph, were weekend guests of Mr. Richards' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Richards. Mr. and Mrs. Merlyn Collins, Toronto, who attended the Richards' presentation on Saturday, were also guests.

AURORA HIGH NEWS
Shirley Liversidge
Even though our rugby team walked all over Sutton and Beaverton last week, it came away from Friday's tangle with Newmarket on the wrong side of a score of 21-6. Since total points count in this final series, Aurora still has a fighting chance.

Also on Friday the Aurora junior and senior girls' teams entertained girls from Bradford, Newmarket and Richmond Hill in a volleyball tournament here.
The competition was keen and the school spirit high. Richmond Hill's senior team emerged victorious over Newmarket girls after a game that left the most indifferent spectator a nervous wreck. It seems Richmond Hill wasn't satisfied with a mere senior championship as it succeeded in taking the junior championship by beating the Aurora team.

Aurora high duly observed Remembrance Day by a memorial service which honored the 22 students from this school killed in action. Rev. Jenkinson, King, addressed the students and his talk was followed by the placing of a wreath on a plaque inscribed with the names of the dead by Kenneth Hoiles, cadet colonel.
The two minutes of silence were impressively preceded by the sounding of the Last Post and ended by Reveille.

tances were renewed among the large gathering.
Mrs. Ray Burt spent a recent long weekend with an old friend, Mrs. Henry Smith, Ottawa. On her arrival, a new Studebaker car had been delivered to the Smith's, which necessitated "breaking in", to Mrs. Burt's advantage as she saw many of the city's interesting highlights. She explored the Dominion governmental buildings, the Chateau Laurier and crossed over the border to Hull, Quebec. The weather was exceptionally fine there.

Members of the Ferguson family, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Curtis, attended the funeral of Mr. Arthur Gale, Sherwood, at the home of Mrs. A. W. Lawrie, Maple, on Friday with interment in Sherwood Lutheran cemetery.
Mr. Gale, 66, passed away suddenly on November 7. Surviving are his wife, the former Mabel Robinson, two daughters, Mrs.
Watson Ferguson, King, and Miss Louise Gale, at home.

Mrs. T. L. Williams, King, and Mrs. C. H. Bowman, Maple, were guest speakers at St. Paul's Presbyterian W.M.S., Vaughan, held at the home of Mrs. Nelson Kerr, Vellore, on Thursday, Nov. 9.
Constable William Davis, West
King, left with the Proctor Hunt club for a camp near Burwash last week where the 30 members hope to get their quota of deer.

Newmarket and Aurora show heavy increases in population; indeed increases are general throughout the north end of the county, particularly along Yonge St., south of Aurora, and through the south end of King twp. Some of this increase is natural, of course, but a high percentage of it represents the number of families who have quit the city for "a home and bit of land" in the country. Not all of them have the "bit of land", but most of them do benefit from lower living costs—rent, taxes, service costs—which are to be found outside the city limits.

But while economy is frequently the cause for a house outside the metropolitan area (the shortage of city homes goes with mentioning), many erstwhile city dwellers are making the change because they prefer the pleasures of country life to city life. There was a time when distance made life in the country for a man whose work was in the city something to be waited for until he retired, but the city limits are only 40 minutes away from Newmarket, and you can easily spend that long on a streetcar without going beyond the city.

For every Torontonian who escapes the city, there are dozens of others who want to follow. City life, they have found, does not encourage the easy-going comfort and sense of security that a real home requires. The city street is no place on which to raise children. The impersonality of neighbors, the isolation a city-dweller feels even on a crowded street car, have no counter-parts in the small rural community where the tradition of friendliness and hospitality are as much a part of the community as its roads and general stores.

The influx of plain John Citizens and their families is only a part of the flow away from the cities. Another comparative newcomer is the man who invests his money in land and establishes himself as the master of broad estates. The country folk poke fun at these "city farmers" and not without some excuse. But most of them have become an accepted, even necessary, part of the countryside. Out through the northern part of King, for example, are many farms which have been bought by city men who have poured thousands of dollars into restoring the land. Jeer if they wish, their neighbors must acknowledge that hundreds of acres of over-grazed, eroded and sandy land has been put into useful production and the whole countryside has benefited. Only someone with the capital to invest for years before getting a return could restore these farms.

Another form of import to the countryside has been the artists, the radio and stage people, the writers. They do not extend in any great numbers north of Aurora, but out Kleinburg way and in central King twp. there are many of them. They are close enough to the city for easy access to the professional atmosphere, far enough away to enjoy a certain amount of isolation which seems necessary to their endeavors.

The country town has been a welcome home to small industries as well. Newmarket, for example, has the Tillmark archery firm, a specialized business, operated by its owner and his wife in an old barn. King had, and may still have, a two-man woodenware firm. A printer located in Maple, hoping to get away from the city and at the same time, cut down his business, retaining only enough to comfortably support him. We are told he has since doubled his business.

Towards Unionville, there is another form of city refugees at Cherry Hill Farm, the John Masdens. This couple has built a sporting goods supply business but they also use their farm as a "school of living" and teach square dancing, hold discussion seminars and generally teach ways towards a fuller life.

THE ESSENCE OF GIVING

Before the ashes of the Oak Ridges fire last Monday had cooled, neighbors had begun to assist the three families who were made homeless. Food and clothing was contributed. Accommodation was found. Financial assistance was given. The families had lost all but the clothes they wore. The most strenuous effort of the Lake Wilcox-Oak Ridges community could never replace their belongings in their entirety. We warrant, however, they have something just about as precious, the unstinting assistance of the neighbors such as is only found in small communities.

You can protest against indifference and apathy in civic matters, against the smallness of thought, the limited vision, the gossip and maliciousness that can also be found in small communities, but there is nothing which surpasses the warmth and neighborliness shown towards those in distress. It is a virtue all small communities possess in some degree; it redeems all faults and is the biggest reason why, once having lived in a small town, few depart from it willingly.

The assistance given to the Oak Ridges families was not that of a national organization, and delivered with the impersonality of professional workers. It came from all levels of the community, from the Lions, from the ratepayers' association, from the Salvation Army, through the local branch of the Red Cross, from the school children, from neighbors and businessmen. Everyone in the community had the opportunity to help in his own way. Here was the essence of real giving — from neighbor to neighbor, from friend to friend.

WATER PROBLEM GROWS

Farmers south and east of Newmarket claim that the demand for water in a "nearby town" is affecting their wells. There is no denying the increased demand for water in both Newmarket and Aurora, and to attribute to it a falling level in a farmer's well seems a fair charge. However, it is also evident that neither Newmarket nor Aurora are going to reduce their water requirements because of this. The answer is conservation.

Both municipalities, just as the farmers, are dependent upon wells, and wells are dependent upon the amount of water which can be kept in the land. The Holland Valley has been dealt with ruthlessly through the years. The difference between the river levels of spring and those of fall, the rise in the river after a rain storm, are indicative of the amount of moisture that runs uselessly down to Lake Simcoe instead of being kept in the land.

In this respect, the farmers have as much responsibility as any in the practice of conservation measures. However, both Newmarket and Aurora share that responsibility although neither has done much more than acknowledge it. As major water users, and completely dependent upon what water they can pump from the ground, both municipalities have a heavy stake in maintaining their water sources. It is not unreasonable to look to them to give leadership in water conservation.

The provincial government provides the framework within which a conservation commission can be organized. Aurora did take the lead in organizing a commission over a year ago but it was an abortive effort. There has not been an attempt since. It is not a project that residents of the valley can afford to let go by the board. If farm wells are affected now, what will happen in another year or two at the present rate of growth in the district? For that matter, what will happen if next summer is as dry as the summer of 1949?

TIME ON OUR HANDS

Editor Bill Cranston of Midland remarked on his editorial page a few weeks ago that it was later than his readers thought. This observation was prompted by the time the town hall clock was keeping which was some minutes slower than correct. We in Newmarket have the very opposite sort of problem. Our post office clock is frequently faster than the correct time.

There are one or two conclusions to be drawn from this circumstance. It could be suggested, for example, that Newmarket is more up to date than Midland, that Newmarket eagerly faces the future while Midland would hold back time. But then, this may be unfair to both, to attribute to the one a dissatisfaction with the present and the other a too strong a hold on it, when in reality, it may be simply a matter of the personal beliefs of the respective custodians of the respective clocks.

Mr. Cranston seems convinced that Midland's slow time is pure bungling on the part of the federal government. If his argument is sound, then we do indeed have a very flexible government. In one town it holds back time; in the other it encourages the opposite extreme. But then, as has been frequently observed, Canada is a land of contradictions and the government may be doing its best to maintain that tradition.

In any event, we refuse to become wrought up about it and tell our readers it was earlier than they thought. The pleasures of such a discovery should be left for each to experience for himself. What could be more delightful than to find, after hurrying for an appointment for which you were sure you were late, that you are just exactly on time.

MUCH YET TO BE DONE

In the interests of civic pride, a request to the crew of the new garbage truck that they perform their duties in evening clothes is not too unreasonable. Mr. Frank Johnston goes so far as to suggest a distinctive uniform including, we know not why, a "harbor master's hat". Seriously, the new truck is a grand step towards the improvement of our municipal services. It does offer, however, a standard of service which is not matched in other aspects of sanitation.

East Gwillimbury council at its last meeting heard complaints from downstream residents that empty cans were littering the river, washed down from Newmarket's dump. This condition will no doubt be improved by the use of the new truck, but the open dump continues to be a blot on the landscape. It may be the accepted practice, but open dumping is an abuse of sanitary habits, and although the site of the dump is far removed, the civic apathy which condones it is right on our doorstep.

East Gwillimbury council heard another complaint from the same source, this time concerned with the strength of Newmarket's determination to proceed with a sewage disposal plant. The down river residents can hardly be blamed for their doubts. They have been put off and put off in their quite justifiable claim that the Holland River has become close to an open sewer. The sewage disposal plant has been on the agenda since last nomination time and so far, there is no physical evidence of one in the making.

Finally, there is talk of some residents demanding a reduction in their assessments and water bills because smoke is depreciating their property and requiring extra water to remove where possible. Council has had before it an anti-smoke by-law since September but there was little action on it until last week when it was given its preliminary readings. Copies of the by-law have been sent to owners of premises affected by the by-law. In the meantime, however, there have been some expressions of doubt as to whether the by-law could be made effective.

It is a reasonable doubt. For one thing, the railway is a serious smoke offender but there is no mention of restricting it in the by-law. Obviously, some authority has to be established by the town, but it seems to us that more beneficial results would accrue if there was recognition of the need for a community consideration of the problem and a willingness to undertake its solution.

BUT NOT A BATTLE CRY

The Ontario Liberal party has a long road to travel. It has begun the journey with the choice of a new leader, and agreement on policy. Mr. Walter C. Thompson is a farmer-lawyer from Pickering who sits in the federal house for the riding of Ontario. He is a man of political experience, a candidate who, despite the following of the surprise candidate, Dr. Harry M. Cassidy, was by the far the convention's choice.

The policy which the convention approved was not publicized in the press or radio, and the candidates for leadership made little reported reference to it. Possibly there was a reason for this apparent subordination of policy. It may have been the fault of press and radio that it did not receive more attention. The fact is, however, with the Liberals needing the inspiration of a fighting platform as much as a new leader, they have given party supporters one but the province is in the dark about the other.

The party greatly needs the support that could be rallied about a platform which would strike at the heart of the Conservative purposes and practices. There has been sound criticism. It is not enough. As far as the man in the street is concerned, he is told where the government erra and how the Liberals would correct this; he has not been given a rallying cry which in its positive utterance would strike at the very root of the present administration.

That slogan, that rallying cry, can be found; perhaps it has been already. But if it has, the secret has been kept.

Office Cat Reports Catnips By Ginger

Slim Bliggins has gone to Europe. Most people travelling to Europe these days are going there to find out if there is to be a third world war. Anybody who goes to Europe comes back an official authority on the international situation. If he returns without reporting on it, he might be considered to be a Communist.

Every daily newspaper which wants to build its circulation now has an official representative over there finding the real reasons why we shouldn't like Russians. Even cook book columnists are included among the foremost authorities, providing they have taken at least a three-week plane trip to Berlin.

But Slim Bliggins is not going for that reason. He is going to study the prehistoric cave drawings of Homo Cro-Magnonensis. He will spend most of his time in caves.

"It all started by an argument with the East Thimbleberry art authority, Cyril Izzem, about the origin of modern art," Slim told your favorite cat correspondent in a farewell interview this week.

"Cyril Izzem sez 'modern' art is a recent conception by 20th century man," Slim said.

"What do you say?" I asked him.

"I sez modern art got its start before the last European ice age got finished meltin' down," he declared. "And I am going to prove it."

Our own natural born primitive artist bases his case on several scientific discoveries. One discovery made in this century was a sculptured head found in a French cave which bears an almost perfect resemblance to a modern sculptured head by Brancusi. "It was done by the Cro-Magnons," says Slim. "They were an ancient European race which died out before modern man, Homo Sapiens, appeared on the earth."

"Old Cro must have had good tastes," I said.

"Yep. He owned a bigger skull than modern man too. He wasn't ape-like a tall neither. Scientists sez he had more brain room than we have and that his art was especially noteworthy. And as I said before, old extinct Cro-Magnon originated a style of art which guys like Cyril Izzem in their simpleness calls 'modern' art."

As I waved goodbye to Slim when he moved out of the harbor on the S.S. Seapriive, he hollered, "I'll be back with some genuine etched copies of cave murals of woolly mammoths and maybe a paeliolithic bust."

Slim booked his passage on a slow freighter, the S.S. Seapriive, and is probably churning through the mid-Atlantic now.

Your correspondent since has been contemplating the inefficiency of contemporary Homo Sapiens.

Had it not been for the Warm ice sheet, there might have existed a more likeable species of human, than the moderns. Cro-Magnon, with a possibly greater brain power, developed an advanced culture thousands of years ago. Think of what he could have evolved into by now! Maybe he would have been smart enough to avoid social misfortunes like Homo Sapiens is involved in.

And maybe there'd be no partitioned Berlin or Homo Sapiens to be authorities on it.

by "Back Concession" The Top Six Inches

What is the future of the Federation of Agriculture? Reports say that some countries have not paid any money on their quota this year, some have paid part and a few are paid in full.

We are living in what is sometimes referred to as a "pressure age", an age of groups working together for their own interests. We farmers can only follow the rules of the game. Some 20 years ago, Dr. H. H. Harman outlined one night at Pickering College what is now the federation of agriculture. The growth has been slow but steady. We farmers now have a bargaining organization to work in our interests. To get sufficient funds to carry on our business, will it become necessary to reorganize, change the name and have a new system of collecting money?

The United Co-operatives is the largest contributor to the federation. Will the United Co-operatives and its 110 affiliated stores and organizations have to take over the financing of the federation of agriculture?

Is there a need for a federation? The government statistics report says from July, 1948, to July, 1949, the general wholesale price index increased 32 percent while the wholesale price of farm products went up only 35 percent. Farm gasoline has risen 133 percent, a six-foot binder 40 percent, tractors 447 percent, electrical fixtures and hardware 36 percent, binder twine 135 percent. The government statistics show that the decline in price of wheat and potatoes more than off-sets the advancing prices in livestock, poultry and eggs. In the face of these facts, we have intelligent farmers who say that the federation can do them no good.

Arthur Hawkes, at one time editor of The Newmarket Era, and P. W. Pearson, mayor of Newmarket at that time, presented a brief to the York county council on high school taxation. It was shown that the towns were paying too large a share of high school taxes. P. W. Pearson closed his remarks with these words: "Gentlemen, justice will prevail." It took the county over five years to adjust the taxation rates but justice at last did prevail.

It has been suggested that Back Concession that the writing in this column is not much in the nature of agriculture, that it should be in a lighter vein. Through association with those who are trying to solve some of our farm problems and by getting individual opinions, we try and write as we hear it and give as wide a viewpoint as possible. If at any time our statements are not correct or when we sum up we give the wrong impression, we would be pleased to stand corrected. From time to time, new faces appear at our farm meetings and when these people return and take part in our discussions, we like to think that this column may in part be responsible.

We have been asked why we do not write about the whole milk producers. We consider that the whole milk producers have leadership and finances enough. The average farmer has a great hope that somehow, something will be done to solve the farmers' problems without effort or expense to the farmers. Labor research shows that the farmer this year is receiving less for his produce and the housewife is paying more.

Labor passed two resolutions in the interests of the farmer at a meeting recently. Will the farmer be content to stand to one side and let labor take over and run our business? Farmers show resourcefulness, intelligence and ability in production of food, yet our farm organizations have to go begging for finance. What the mind doesn't know, the heart can't grieve. This column may be wrong in trying to bring to the farmers some of the unjust practices under which the farmer must work. Cheerio.

An Aurora Opinion

By DOROTHY BARKER
Aurora Editor

The spontaneous success of an amateur production at the Aurora high school last week has proved a point we have been stressing for years. The fact that the cast had just as good time as the audience and that the cause for which the review was produced is many dollars richer is added proof of the virtue of amateur theatricals.

When we have suggested that a dramatic society be formed we have had a following of two or three enthusiasts. Their "here here's" and "bravos" when we really got wound up on the subject were lost in the echo of discouraging reasons why Aurora would not support such an enterprise.

Why do we have to wait for a director from the "outside" to prove to us that "it can be done"? There is a great deal of talent in our town, hungry for a means of expression. A drama group has many outlets for these talents other than singing, dancing and acting. In every organization of this nature there are study groups, committees for the design of costumes, the art department where those who are not interested in acting may express themselves with a pot of paint or a spectacular idea for an interior decoration job. There is the publicity department for the would-be writers, and the financial side which always needs a mathematical wizard. In fact there is no organization that has the scope of a dramatic society in its appeal to artistic effort be it for thespian or author, artist or ballet dancer.

We hope that while the popularity of last week's production is still stimulating conversation, a really live dramatic society will be born. Canada is blessed with a number of famous "Little Theatre" groups, most of them more ambitious than we suggest for Aurora, but all of them started with only a few members. Recently the recreation commission considered a recommendation from Mrs. B. L. Stavert, who has had a great deal of experience in the direction of Little Theatre productions, that the commission sponsor a dramatic society. This suggestion coupled with the 50-50 club's success may stimulate enough interest to make such a dream a reality.

Newmarket Students Tour General Motors

On November 7, Mr. Howard Morton of Morton Bros., Newmarket, sponsored a tour through the offices and plants of General Motors, Oshawa, for the commercial students of Newmarket high school.

The extensive morning tour covered the making of a car from the first piece of sheet metal to the testing of the finished automobile. It was fascinating to watch a sheet of metal being placed in one of the giant presses and come out shaped like a fender. The co-ordination and planning, as shown on the assembly line where 27 to 29 cars were completed in an hour, greatly impressed the students. After enjoying a luncheon provided by Morton Brothers at the Adelaide House, the students toured the order and parts departments where they had a glimpse of the business world carried on with the assistance of the latest in office equipment. The size of big business today made a strong impression on every student—Mary Ellen MacInnes and Joan Gibson.

George Brown Chief Of King Fire Brigade

A permanent volunteer fire brigade for King became a reality at a meeting of ratepayers called by commissioners on Nov. 6. George Brown, coal dealer, was named chief and Dave (Pete) Glass, a garage operator, the deputy chief, with authority to select men to compose a fire-fighting squad of not less than ten.

The officials agreed to interview Aurora fire department, which serves this district, as to the training of a brigade which Aurora is willing to give.

Commissioner Crawford Wells, chairman of the meeting, said present equipment consists of 550 feet of hose, two nozzles, fire extinguishers and a cart for transporting equipment. A fire siren, and a suggestion to build a fire hall were discussed. It was suggested that printed cards for each household and place of business be set up outlining regulations, instructions, and the names of the brigade volunteers.

It took only one fire to alert townspeople to the necessity of fire protection. The United church manse burned to the ground at midnight in June, 1945. A waterworks system was installed and working by December, 1948. During the intervening time George Brown has acted as temporary fire chief, with villagers volunteering help. A number of new homes have been added as new subdivisions were formed. The population continues to increase as more homes are constructed. The watermains are likely to be extended in the near future.

U.N. Only Hope For Peace Delegate Tells Ridges Lions

"The only hope of world peace is the United Nations," declared Miss Mary Bowman, Aurora, addressing the Oak Ridges Lions club at ladies' night at Ridge Inn, Nov. 9. Miss Bowman is secretary of the Toronto branch of the United Nations Association in Canada and the only delegate to the fifth plenary assembly of the World Federation of U.N. Associations at Geneva in September.

"If Korea had done nothing more, it has placed the weight of public opinion behind the U.N.," the speaker said. She feels the press in the United States, and to a lesser degree in Canada, is either unaware or unwilling to be aware of its responsibility to its own people and to international peace as a whole. There is far from enough publicity by the press of the positive accomplishments of the United Nations," she said. "Too often negative news make headlines," she declared.

As Canada's delegate at Geneva, Miss Bowman found her responsibility enhanced as representative of 40 countries discussed weighty problems endeavoring to enlarge the program. Activated by the speaker's appeal for support of U.N. Association, Oak Ridges club approved a motion made by Jack Blyth to become a corporate member. Mr. Bob Wooley supported the motion. Representing the local club will be Don Chalk and Norman MacIntosh.

Introduced to the club by president C. L. Stephenson, Miss Bowman was presented with a bouquet of 'mums in appreciation of her address. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Bowman were guests of the evening.

Oak Ridges News

At a well attended meeting of the Home and School Association at Oak Ridges November 13, Rev. E. C. Moddle spoke on home education as it relates to the parents and the child. The first eight years of a child's life are tremendously important, he stated. Moral and cultural habits as well as eternal things should be developed. Good reading, good radio programs, the influence of good pictures form an important part of his training, he said.

Mr. L. F. Harnden gave guitar selections and a committee served refreshments. Mrs. Bob Wooley, president, was in the chair and Mrs. H. E. Wright convened the program.

Christmas Fund Increases
A rummage sale for the Children's Christmas fund sponsored by Oak Ridges and Lake Wilcox Ratepayers' Association brought in nearly $25. It was held at the home of Mrs. Wm. Ashby who was assisted by Mrs. Clifford Weston and Mrs. Tom Maguire.

The Nicholls Beauty Salon gave a permanent wave as a bingo prize. Mr. Stanley Hart, grocer, merchant at Lake Wilcox, has given equipment for a home wave. Between the bingos, eucures and rummage sales, the work is going steadily forward. The "big night" will be held later when prizes of many sorts will form an important feature of the fund-raising project. Christmas will soon roll around and Santa Claus will need help to cheer the little folk in Lake Wilcox district.

Mrs. Charles Taylor, seriously injured in a recent traffic accident at Cornwall, is reported out of danger. Her husband, who suffered shock and bruises, will remain at Cornwall while his bride is in hospital. Mr. Taylor and his wife's mother, Mrs. Jas. Stearns, Toronto, are staying at Cornwallis hotel.

Mr. Norman Taylor, a brother, with Mr. William Gibson, his brother-in-law, motored to Cornwall last Friday, returning to Oak Ridges on Sunday. Anxious to offer assistance, they were considerably relieved on learning of the satisfactory report of Ruth Taylor's condition. Norman had been groomsmen for his brother's wedding a week prior to the accident. Charles motored home with them to see his mother and sister, Mrs. Gibson, at the Oak Ridges home.

Mrs. N. N. Peloquin and Mrs. Cragg were among those attending the eucure on November 15 given by our Lady of Grace parish, Aurora.

Miss Anne Stephenson achieved a mark of 85 in the mezzo soprano class of the Guelph Kiwanis Music Festival held during the weekend. Nancy Stephenson sang in the Aurora United church junior choir, directed by Mr. Illtyd

OBITUARY

Mrs. Letitia Doak

Letitia Doak, Zephyr, died at the family home, Scott twp., on October 23 after a lingering illness. Born at Collingwood June 17, 1866, she was the daughter of the late Eliza Reburn and James Creighton. In March, 1898, she married John David Doak who predeceased her July, 1928. Mrs. Doak attended the United church and was a member of the Women's Institute for many years.

She lived at Zephyr for 43 years and although an invalid for the past 13 years, never complained and was always thinking of the welfare of others and took a keen interest in what went on in her community and in world affairs. Her hobby was art and she was a great reader.

Surviving are daughters Mrs. Thompson (Faye), Toronto, Mrs. Meyers (Ila), Zephyr, the late Mrs. Storrey (Alma), and a son, Jack, who died June 13, 1950; sisters, Mrs. Nellie Gawn, Windsor, Mrs. Francis Dodds, Toronto, and Miss Mary Creighton, Vancouver.

Rev. Bamford, Dunbarton, conducted the funeral services held on October 26 at The Chapel, Mount Albert. Interment was in the family plot at Zephyr. Pallbearers were Chris Coppins, Lee McLeod, Delbert Longhurst, Milton Keller, Ches Mitchell and Geo. Kester.

Farm Forum News

The Bogartown Farm Forum met last Monday at the home of Bill Walker when the subject was "Forests, Slash or Save?" Cecil Wood was discussion leader. There were 12 present. The next meeting will be at the home of C. Greenwood on Nov. 27.

The Forum found: "In York County, we have a by-law prohibiting the cutting of small trees of valuable timber species but our group doubted that it is being enforced. We believe that forest cutting should be under the supervision of the Department of Lands and Forests to protect woodlots for the future."

"We feel that very few farmers are obtaining anywhere near the maximum benefit from their woodlots that could be had through proper farm management. Fencing woodlots to keep out farm animals was considered the most important step in woodlot protection. Also, we believe that on some farms there are many trees standing which should be cut to make way for new growth."

"There are many places where it would pay to plant shelter belts and woodlots."

Stone Repeat Show For Hospital Aid Benefit

The Newmarket Dramatic Club's recent production of "Dirty Work at the Crossroads" will be repeated for a one night performance on Friday, Dec. 8. The play will be sponsored by the Ladies' Aid of the York County hospital and the entire proceeds will go to the Aid.

The burlesqued gay nineties melodrama was enthusiastically received by theatre goers in Newmarket and it is expected that many who did not see the production before will attend the repeat performance.

Melvir Bible Class Band To Play At Church Rally

The Christian Baptist church, Newmarket, is having a fall rally and preaching festival for the week of November 19. This series will open Sunday at 11 a.m. under the leadership of the Baptist Men's Brotherhood of Toronto.

M. W. Pamenter, Toronto, will be the speaker and Reg. Boham will be the soloist.

At 7 o'clock the Melvir Bible Class Band with its leader, Jim McConaghie, will conduct an evangelistic service. The Melvir Bible Class Band has been organized for over 20 years and its experiences have been varied and its services are always inspirational and helpful.

At the close of the evening service a fireside hour is planned when all will be able to meet the speaker and the boys of the band informally.

A unique feature of the week-day services will be the ringing of the bell and the playing of the chimes from the church tower. This will act as a reminder to those who plan to attend and will also contribute sacred melody at this somewhat unusual time. The services during the week will commence at 7.30 p.m.

Rev. S. Arnold Westcott, formerly of western Canada and now pastor of the Kingsway Baptist church of Toronto, is the guest speaker on Monday evening. He will be followed Tuesday evening by Rev. John McLeod of the Glencairn Baptist church, Toronto. Mr. McLeod, until recently, has been the pastor of Wallaceburg Baptist church. The Wednesday evening service will be conducted by Rev. Alex. Hackson, Century Baptist church, Toronto. Mr. Hackson is a teacher of fundamental Bible truth and has been in his present pastorate for over 20 years.

There have been suggestions from time to time about extending and widening Cedar St. to provide more business access, and a similar development of the lane behind the stores on the west side of Main St.

Parking meters were installed on the basis of a year's trial. It is almost a year ago this month that they were put on Main St. and it is expected that the council will decide soon whether it will keep them or not.

Aurora Lions 'Roar' At Ladies Night

Aurora Lions have set two meeting nights aside each year to "roar". On these occasions the ladies are invited to join them and the serious business of welfare work, the Aurora Band and financial problems are forgotten in a spirit of revelry.

This bi-annual celebration was held Tuesday night at Graystones when 176 members, wives and guests enjoyed the program planned by the committee.

The professional entertainers, the Silver Toned Trio, ran in close competition for top billing with a cast completely unheard of and unqualified as actors which demonstrated for the benefit of the ladies a "Committee meeting". The significance of the skit was that nothing was accomplished "as usual".

The toast to the ladies was proposed by Lyman Tomkins and replied to by Mrs. Reta Cousins.

A draw for the prizes was held following the dinner. Mrs. Lees Oram won the shoes made from Collis Leather, Mrs. W. J. Landen the large serving tray, and Mrs. Bill Morris the cup and saucer.

Guests of the Lions at dinner and for the dance which followed were District Governor and Mrs. Fred Thompson, Newmarket, Deputy District Governor and Mrs. Dick Edmonds, Richmond Hill and Mayor and Mrs. Bell.

The committee in charge who should be congratulated on the success of the affair were Chairman Stan Walker, Rod Smith, Ab Stoltz, Doug Harrison and Cam McTaggart.

Plans for the second annual community bazaar which will be held in the town hall on Tuesday, Dec. 5 are nearing completion.

Mrs. George McNelly, convenor of the project for the sponsoring organization, the Newmarket Handcraft group has received word from the following that they will participate in the bazaar: Catholic Women's league, St. Paul's Anglican evening branch of the W.A., Junior Ladies, Aid of the Christian Baptist church, Mrs. Thomas Ingledew, Mrs. N. L. Mathews, Rudy Renzius, Mrs. G. F. McCarnan, F. J. VandenBergh, T. Hood, Miss L. Cutting, Miss Helen Richardson, Girl Guide company and the Handcraft group.

Other groups or individuals who are interested in having a table at the bazaar are requested to contact Mrs. McNelly. Individuals who would like to enter articles in the bazaar may turn their work into the handcraft group who will handle the sales for them. Fifteen percent of all sales made at the bazaar will go to the handcraft group to help defray expenses.

ST. PAUL'S CHURCH
The church parade for Remembrance Day was held this year at St. Paul's church with Rev. J. T. Rhodes giving the address. There was a good turn-out of veterans who assembled at the town hall and marched to the church. Members of Mount Albert and Aurora branches were also present.

Last Thursday the Afternoon Branch of the W.A. packed its annual bale of good used clothing for the needy settlers of our Canadian north west and the box of Christmas gifts. The officers and members were greatly pleased at the response for there were 85 splendid gifts and two large cartons of clothing. The officers wish to thank everyone who aided their effort in any way. The Evening Branch of the W.A. held its regular Dorcas meeting last week under the supervision of Mrs. Harold Evans, Dorcas superintendent. It supplied the flowers last Sunday for the altar and the memorial tablet, choosing white baby mums.

Value Of Immunization Stressed To Mothers

"Toxoids and vaccines are the gilt edged bonds of medicine," said Dr. Nelles Silverthorne addressing a packed meeting of the Aurora Home and School Ass'n on "Prevention and cure of communicable diseases." During his address, the eminent epidemiologist of the Hospital for Sick Children stressed the value of a three-fold inoculation now being administered to pre-school aged children. Given as a unit the three preventives are diphtheria and whooping cough toxoids and tetanus vaccine. Three inoculations and a booster unit which is advised once a year until a child reaches the age of five will completely immunize against two dreaded diseases and protect a child against lock jaw.

"Ontario stands out like a beacon light throughout the world with its record of mass inoculation and also its record of hardly a case of diphtheria in many years," continued the speaker.

He told the parents that medical science had reduced contagious disease to a minimum but that the accident graph is alarming. "Forget the dust on your tables and the washing in your basement. Your first duty is as guardians of your children's lives, and the only way to prevent an accident is to sure you are keeping your children from getting in front of motor cars." Dr. Silverthorne said that medical science would continue to produce more and more spectacular miracle drugs, toxoids and vaccines but that as long as there are "morons driving motor cars" this science will never be able to control the mortality rate among children.

He was introduced by Dr. E. W. Williams who gave a brief outline of the speaker's career in research and treatment of contagious children's diseases.

With the poise of an experienced speaker Elizabeth Hearn, who came third in the recent oratorical contest for one and eight in spectacles, gave her address on the "York Memorial Temple at Sharon." Several of the pupils of Mr. Illyd Harris sang festival and exhibition numbers. The pupils included Nancy Stocks, E. Barnes, Margaret Barrager and Dawna Case.

Comic books were donated by members and will be presented to the patients of Ontario Hospital, Aurora.

IT'S A Woman's World

By CAROLINE ION

For many of the parents visiting the Prince Charles school for its formal opening, it was like walking into a dream world. Was this really a school building? It bore no resemblance to those which they had attended not so many years ago. "Imagine being able to spend your days working in these surroundings," said one mother. "Wonder if I bring my books on Monday would they let me come to school," commented another.

The senior class room, which is larger than ordinary, will serve the school as an auditorium. The stage which is separated from it by collapsible leatherette doors in a mottled green shade will serve as a teachers rest and lunch room. Off the stage is a kitchenette equipped with cupboards, sink and electrical outlets where teachers can prepare a hot dish when it is necessary for them to remain at the school during the lunch hour. It will also prove a great convenience to groups who may use the auditorium when they serve refreshments in conjunction with their programs. There is an entrance from both sides of the stage—a feature which will be welcomed when school plays and concerts are presented. The background of the stage is done in a chateaux and the draperies in the auditorium are a grey damask.

Off the auditorium is the office of the principal and next to it the future nurse's room. These rooms may be reached by way of a short hall off the main corridor so that although they provide seclusion for those working there, they are easily accessible. The end of the main corridor adjoining the nurse's room has been partitioned to form the school library. There the shelves have been erected in readiness for the books. A trophy display cupboard is built-in the wall of the corridor and at present houses the master key to the building which was used in the official opening ceremonies.

Green "save-sight" boards made of glass have replaced the traditional blackboards. There is a minimum of glare with these modern boards and the color, green, is considered by authorities to be easiest on the children's eyes. These boards are at the front of each class room and on the wall opposite the large window area which occupies an entire wall in each room. Cork

Needlecraft News

by Pauline Roy

"Just now, prove that you can profit from past experiences by doing your Christmas planning thoroughly and early. Those catch phrases, 'This year it will be different' sound familiar to you? You've probably uttered it many times in the past, and at the time you sincerely meant it—but it went the way of many good intentions."

Try a different approach this year and see how it works. If you faithfully follow the resolve to do your Christmas shopping early you will be a greatly surprised with the results. You'll not only save yourself endless pain and trouble, but you'll save yourself money, too.

Many of the panics on your Christmas list probably represent favorite pieces and treasured mementoes that are your own darling children or grandchildren. What better gift for Christmas day than a soft, cuddly toy? Toysland is a veritable joyland for youngsters. No passport is required to pass through its portals, but there are strict rules about getting in—only the young and innocent may enter.

Imagine the delight of the little girl or boy who finds these perky poodles under the Christmas tree. Crafted of white wool, the perky poodle and her pup have bright button eyes and wear black ribbon collars in true poodle fashion. There's still plenty of time to make them before Christmas, if you would like a leader giving you the instructions for making these FRENCH POODLES, just send a stamped, self-addressed envelope to the Needlecraft Dept. of this paper and ask for No. CW-7.

The kindergarten is in reality a self-contained unit. It has separate washroom and lavatory facilities just off the main room with the equipment all scaled to the size of these moppets. In this way it is easier for the children to achieve the independence they must have and yet remain within the teacher's supervision so that a helping hand is always available with troublesome buttons and such.

We Keep Our BEST FEAT FORWARD

"Service to the Sick" is more than a slogan at Lane's Drug Store. It's the very heart of our business because ours is a drug store—first... last... and always... catering fully to the health needs of the community. And it is with this in mind that we point with pride to the 135,000 prescriptions we have compounded. This feat assures you that the dispensing of prescribed medicine will always be foremost among the many services we are prepared to render. You gamble for high stakes when you risk your health by deciding to discontinue the treatment your doctor has prescribed for you. Call him and ask whether you should have the prescription renewed and continue with the medicine. Abide by his advice. The medicine he prescribes—and we prepare—cannot do you any good while it is left standing in the bottle.

Should he decide to give you a new prescription, may we compound it for you?

MONTREAL — Just for fun, I like to experiment and see how many different ways I can serve Jell-O. And there seems to be no end of exciting and economical desserts and salads that JELL-O JELLY POWDERS can make. In whips, with fruit, in fillings, or served plain—Jell-O's seven wonderful "locked-in" flavours have proved to me again and again that here indeed, is a wealth of sparkling ideas for all kinds of wonderful treats. You'll discover so many new ways of serving Jell-O that are quick and easy on the budget. Serve Jell-O often!

Stretching Your Budget

is a problem these days of rising prices, isn't it? Just staying within your allowance calls for an eagle eye on household and general expenses. As for getting together a few extra dimes in "dollars for specials" like a smart new bonnet... well, that really calls for stern measures. That's when a Savings Account at the BANK OF MONTREAL can be so helpful. Such a convenient, safe place to keep money out of temptation's way! Personally, I put every cent I can squeeze into my BofM account. It's surprising how quickly small savings mount up when left to themselves. Just try it... open a Savings Account at a convenient branch of the BofM... and start squeezing those pennies for that personal "special" you want so badly.

Something Brand New For Baby's Bath!

... a clean-as-clean-can-be C-I-L SPONGE. You see, these wonderful C-I-L Cellulose Sponges are soft as velvet, when wet... kind and gentle to baby's tender skin. Hobbs lots of soap 'n' water! You'll like them for your bath, too—for exactly the same reasons that makes them so right for baby's bathtime! And for dishes and general housecleaning. I've found there's nothing like 'em! C-I-L Sponges come in five convenient sizes—at hardware, department, drug, variety and grocery stores. And, when you're buying—be sure to look for the C-I-L label—it's your assurance of quality.

The Little Tea Bag

so familiar in thousands of Canadian homes was "invented" by a thrifty Irish-American in 1908. He operated a wholesale tea and coffee shop in New York's spice district and he decided that he could save money by distributing his tea in small cloth bags instead of expensive metal cans. So he ordered a quantity of hand-sewn bags of China silk, filled them with tea and distributed them as samples. His customers began sending in orders for his china-silk sample bags of tea. They had discovered that a handy way to make tea was to pour boiling water over the samples. Whether you buy RED ROSE TEA in Tea bags or in packages, you'll get more cups per pound of extra-factory goodness—because Red Rose Tea is good tea! And Red Rose Coffee is as good as Red Rose Tea.

Wonderful "Family" Gift

to match that Frigidaire Refrigerator in your kitchen would be a FRIGIDAIRE ELECTRIC RANGE. They'll welcome a hint, so drop one now. There are five grand models to choose from—a size just right for your kitchen—a price just right for your budget. Frigidaire Electric Ranges are beautifully styled by Raymond Lowry, just like Frigidaire Refrigerators. They offer big capacity, cooking convenience and automatic features you've dreamed about. And the men in your family will appreciate the performance and dependability that goes with "a product of General Motors". Right now is not a day too early to start complaining about that old "burner" in your kitchen, so they'll see a Frigidaire Dealer in lots of time to be sure of Christmas delivery.

You'll Be Famous for the cakes you bake with wonderful SWANS DOWN CAKE FLOUR.

That's the cake flour that's made by cake flour specialists... it's sifted over and over again 'til it's 27 times as fine as ordinary flour... and it makes cakes that make folks ask for more!

CHAMPION SPONGE CAKE (4 eggs)

1 1/4 cups sifted Swans Down Cake Flour
1/4 cup sugar
1/4 cup baking powder
1/4 tsp. salt
1 tsp. grated lemon rind

4 egg yolks
1 1/4 cups sugar
4 egg whites
1 tsp. vanilla
2/3 cup boiling water

Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder and salt, and sift together three times. Add lemon rind, egg yolks and beat until thick and light. Add 1/2 cup sugar gradually, beating constantly. Beat egg whites with flat wire whisk or rotary egg beater until light and foamy throughout, add remaining 1/4 cup sugar very gradually and continue beating until stiff enough to hold up in stiff peaks. Add vanilla. Add boiling water to egg yolks, stirring well; then add flour all at once and beat with spoon until smooth. Catchy into greased cake pan. Bake in greased 8-inch cake pan at 350 deg. F. 1 hour, or until done. Invert pan 1 hour, or until cool.

Luncheon Is Served

What a welcome sound is the announcement "Luncheon Is Served". Delay in getting a good start in the morning often means that the breakfast is hurried and is not sufficient to prevent that "low feeling before noon". The homemaker who wants to serve nourishing, well-balanced meals every day will see that the luncheon is hot and satisfying to make up for the scanty breakfast.

Sometimes a hearty cream soup or a chowder will fill the bill. The casserole dish allows for great variation and pleases both the cook and her family. Many combinations may be cooked in the oven in a casserole and when served, the steaming fragrance is a promised appetizing food.

SAUSAGE & CORN CASSEROLE

1 lb. sausages or sausage meat
2 tbsp. sausage dripping
2 tsp. flour
1/2 cup milk
1 20-oz. can cream style corn
1 tsp. minced onion or 2 tbsp. green pepper
1/2 cup fine bread crumbs

If using sausages, remove casing. Shape sausage meat into ten to 12 patties. Fry patties until lightly browned. Make a sauce of the two tbsp. sausage dripping, flour and milk. Cool, stirring frequently, until sauce thickens slightly. Add corn and onion or green pepper, blending well. Arrange alternate layers of crumbs, corn mixture and sausage patties in a greased baking dish. Top with some of the crumbs which have been mixed with a little sausage dripping and arrange a few sausage patties on top. Bake in a moderate oven, 350 degrees, for 30 minutes. If desired, apple rings may be browned on one side in sausage dripping and placed brown side up on top layer of crumbs. Yield: five or six servings.

SURPRISE MOULD

2 cups raw rice
4 cups boiling water
2 1/2 tsp. salt
1/2 cup chopped parsley
3 tbsp. fat
2 cups chopped cooked meat
1/2 cup gravy

Pick over rice and wash well. Add salt to boiling water. Add rice gradually so that water will not stop boiling. Boil vigorously for 15 minutes. Drain well. Add chopped parsley. Set aside one cup of this mixture, then line a well-greased mould with the remainder of the mixture. Press it in until about one and a half inches thick. Fill centre with chopped meat and gravy. Cover with the one cup rice, cover closely. Set mould in hot water and steam 45 minutes. Turn out to serve. Yield: six servings.

CHILI BEANS

1 lb. ground raw beef
1/2 cup chopped onion
2 cups cooked white (navy) beans
1 cup chili sauce
1 to 2 tsp. chili powder
1 tsp. salt
1 small bay leaf
4 whole cloves
1-2 tsp. pepper

Brown beef and chopped onion in a dry pan, stirring constantly. Add cooked beans and stir for about five minutes. Add chili sauce and seasonings and simmer, covered, for 15 to 20 minutes. If mixture thickens too much during cooking, additional vegetable water or tomato juice may be added. Yield: six to eight servings.

CREAMED PEAS WITH DRIED BEEF

1/2 cup dried beef
1 can condensed mushroom soup
1 can drained canned peas
Cut beef in small pieces. Cover with boiling water. Let stand five minutes. Drain. Heat soup and add drained canned peas and meat. Heat thoroughly. Serve on toast, patty shells or over toasted buns. Yield: four servings.

Barney's Bad Manners Simply Self Assertion

Barney, a teen-ager, is fighting against good manners in an attempt to establish his own independence.

Barney is at the stage of development in which he feels like throwing aside the shackles of good breeding and conducting himself as a carefree hoodlum. He is asserting himself as an individual, an individual who has little regard for others, an individual who erroneously believes he is sufficient unto himself.

Fortunately this is just a stage of development in the lives of most teen-agers—and one of short duration when it does occur.

In asserting themselves as individuals there are usually rebellious thoughts and actions. Nevertheless, when the immature learn to know themselves in true perspective, home training in good manners becomes a bulwark of strength to them.

Good manners open doors socially that are otherwise closed. After all, good manners are based on consideration for others without which one cannot expect to be accepted socially in polite society.

It is not a matter of memorizing a book of etiquette and proceeding to use the principles on special occasions. Politeness and consideration for others must be practised daily in every day life in order to become an automatic part of the individuals' actions.

Early home training has no substitute. Despite the fact that Barney is temporarily throwing good manners to the winds, he has had adequate home training and will resort to good manners gratefully when he finds himself ready to qualify for adult responsibilities.

This finding himself may come suddenly when he meets the right girl and desires to make himself worthy of her acceptance.

The Common Round...

WHAT I GATHERED

Being able to attend the Central Ontario Women's Institute convention only one day, Mrs. G. McClure and I chose Thursday, nor had we any reason to regret our choice.

When we arrived at the convention hall, the session was in full swing and the array of heads crowned with an infinite variety of hats convinced us that this was on the way to break a record.

As we went in, Mrs. Fletcher was speaking on the Copenhagen conference and as we listened, there were not many of us who did not wish we had been there, but we had the second best—an excellent raconteur.

English was the language used and for the few delegates to whom our language was a sealed book, there were interpreters, but she said that most of the women knew two or three languages, a fact which does not make us very proud. For as Mrs. Fletcher, Mr. Fisher and Madame Vaudelet all stressed, a knowledge of one or more languages besides their own is obligatory in Denmark and in the other Scandinavian countries while we, who have two races living side by side in Canada, are not even bilingual!

The United States was the most largely represented, having 200 delegates to Canada's 35—even so, we stood second in members. Our delegates wore a red maple leaf. Those assembled were divided into committees, which brought their finding before all voters.

The voters approved a United Nations force and it was generally agreed that women must take a more active part in political life. We, in Canada, are very slothful in this respect. In Norway's parliament 21 of the 67 seats are occupied by women.

Everyone seemed to appreciate what Canadian citizenship meant. The greatness of our organization—its potential force, emanating from 24 countries was stressed. Those working for home and country know no race or creed—all are welcome. We must develop within ourselves and our children a love of the beautiful as presented in art or in nature.

Homemakers must remember that theirs is a high calling—a tremendous responsibility. We must respond to the call for a higher type of citizenship; to self discipline and a re-dedication of our lives and above all, grow to world understanding.

Next we watched girls from the different counties put on demonstrations. What a thing it is for these girls to learn so early to speak before a large audience and so lose the self-consciousness which so often is a bar to older women's participation in the different organizations to which they belong and to which they should be able to contribute.

The junior branches which are doing a splendid work were well represented by those they sent. They spoke on the value of corn products, on re-doing a girl's bedroom with due regard for color and convenience. Colors were shown and various ways of taking care of clothes demonstrated. Then a team of girls gave a first aid demonstration that was fine and refreshed my—as I am sure it did others—first aid bandaging. It was all done with a neatness and dispatch that was delightful and made you feel that when someone needed bandaging and fell into the hands of this group, they would be well and truly taken care of.

Then came the luncheon and we were borne in on the tide of the hungry and finding ourselves among friends we had a delightful time and a delicious meal. I have always given the menu, so here it is—fruit cocktail, baked ham with wine sauce, dauphine potatoes, new peas and for dessert, lemon chiffon pie and coffee.

After the usual preliminaries, Mr. George Murray sang a group of songs—Because, an Irish song written by Mrs. Danny Kaye and Danny Boy. The last time I had heard Mr. Murray was at the C.N.E. when I thoroughly enjoyed both his operatic selections and ballads. This time I was a bit disappointed.

MRS. W. LYONS TALKS TO NEWKT. W.M.S.

Mrs. W. Lyons, Uxbridge, was the guest speaker at a meeting of the W.M.S. of the Free Methodist church, Newmarket, which was held on Thursday, Nov. 2. Mrs. Lyons' talk was well received by the large group in attendance. Special singing was provided by members of the local society. Mrs. H. Wrightman, vice president, was in the chair.

Sired By Maple Bull Heifer World Champ With 22,005 lbs. Milk

A world record for two-year-old heifers has been broken by Orchard Vale Laura Texal, a Holstein owned by Cecil Atkinson and Son of Schomberg. She is pictured above with the original directors and bull purchasing committee of the Maple Cattle Breeders Association. Her sire was Lonelm Texal Ideal, the first bull purchased and used when the association's artificial insemination unit was organized in 1945.

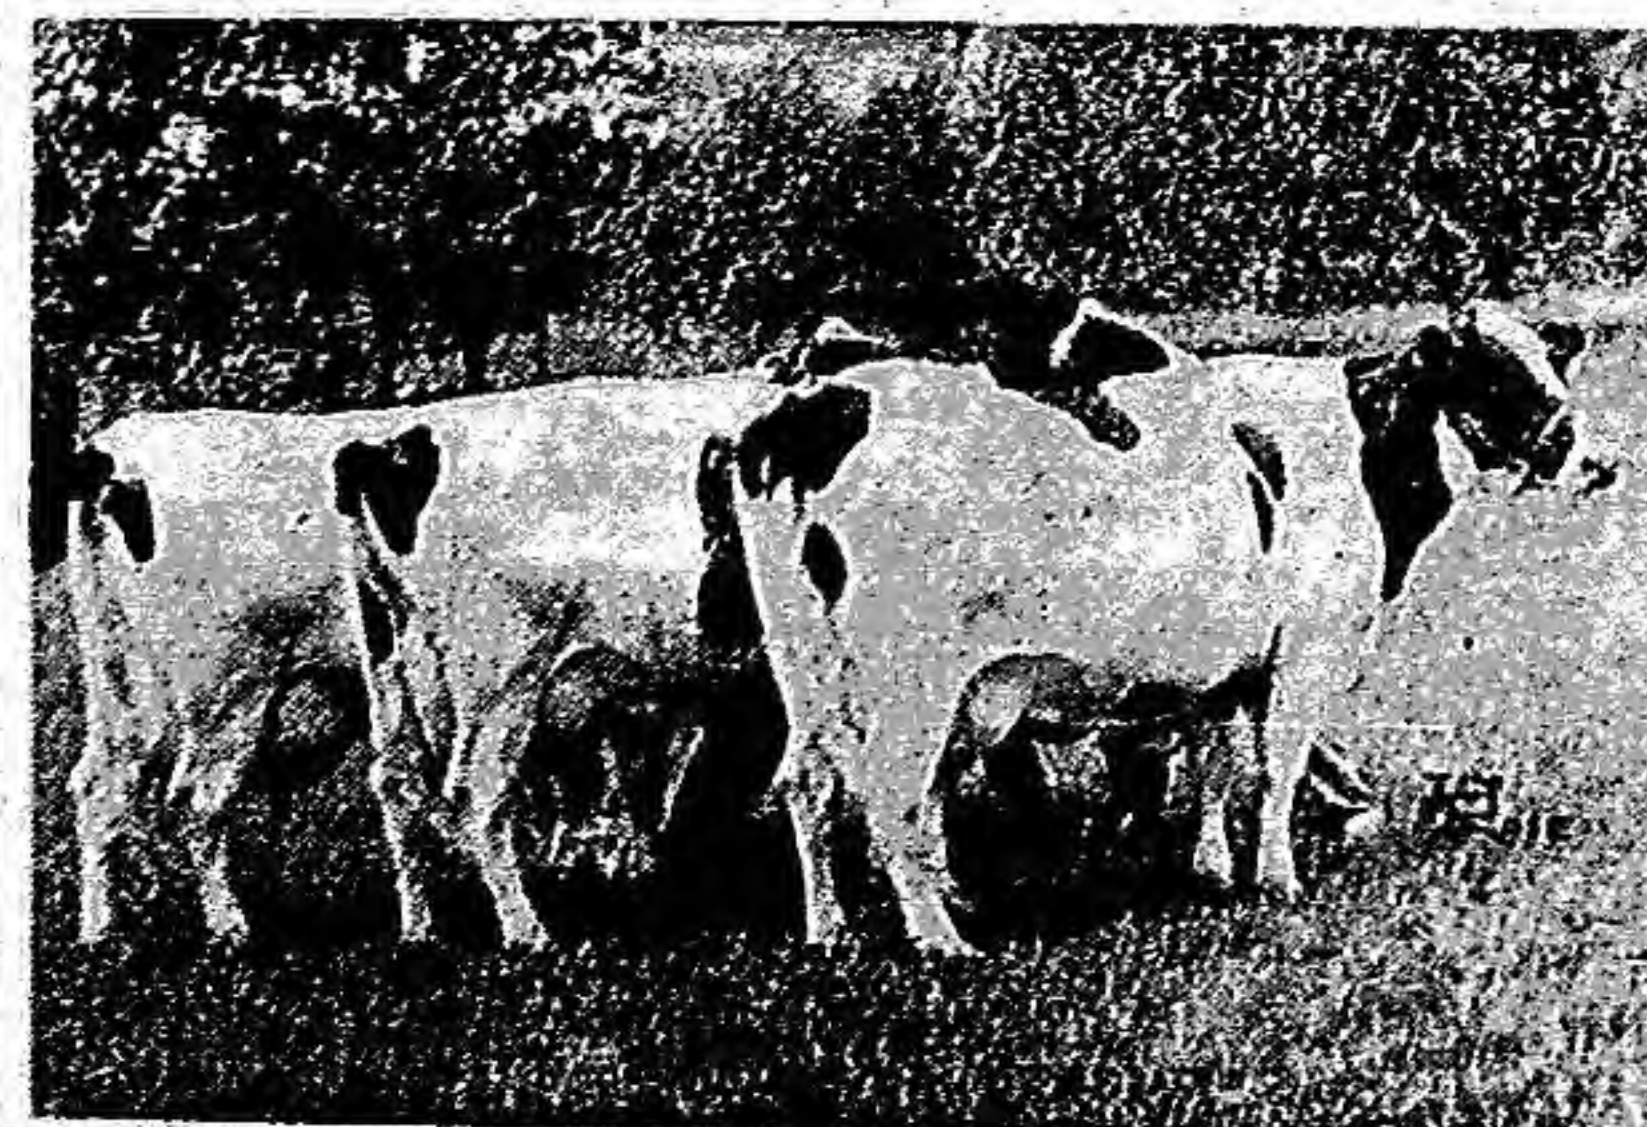

Orchard Vale Laura Texal, a flash in the pan. Three graded good plus three days before the completion of her 365 days record on twice-a-day milking, piled up the remarkable production of 22,005 lbs. of milk, with 787 lbs. of fat, equivalent to 275 cans or 8,800 quarts of milk.

Shown also in the picture are representatives of the Canadian Holstein-Friesian Association, the Ontario Livestock Commissioner and the agricultural representative at Newmarket. Responding to tributes in connection with the new world's record Mr. Cecil Atkinson said that his son, Glen, who graduated from calf club work last year and is now a director of the County Holstein club, has been responsible for feeding Laura Texal throughout the test period.

While Laura's record is nearly 9,000 lbs. over her dams at the same age this cannot be considered as a flash in the pan. Three other two-year-olds in the herd sired by Lonelm Texal Antony, second bull used by the Maple unit, and still in service, have an average of 16,556 lbs. of milk and 586 lbs. of fat on twice-a-day milking.

From the original ten-mile radius served by the Maple Cattle Breeders Association, which is headed by R. J. Darlington, Maple, with G. W. Keffer, also of Maple, as secretary-manager, the insemination unit has spread until now it serves the counties of Halton, Peel, York, Ontario, Victoria, Peterboro, Simcoe, Dufferin and, since October 1, Grey and two districts south and east of North Bay. To the original Holstein breed, Ayrshire, Jersey, Guernsey and Shorthorn batteries have since been added, making a total of 34 bulls available to members of the unit.

THREE WORLD CHAMPION SISTERS

These three Holstein sisters have between them established four world records for butterfat production on twice-a-day milking. They are bred and owned by J. W. Greenwood, Maple. At the right is Roeland Rag Apple Lilly who has just completed a new world record for 365-day production in the senior four-year-old class of 1,055 lbs. fat from 23,767 lbs. milk, average test 4.4 percent butterfat. Lilly was the former world champion junior two-year-old with 827 lbs. fat in 365 days. She is the only Holstein cow in Canada and probably in the world to complete three records, each above 800 lbs. fat, and all started at less than mature age (five years).

Centre is Roeland Cherry Re-Echo Rag Apple, former world champion in the senior four-year-old class of the 305-day division with 821 lbs. fat from 17,456 lbs. milk, a record that is now held by Roeland Rag Apple Daisy (left), with 841 lbs. fat from 18,727 lbs. milk. In her recent lactation Lilly was bred to qualify for the 305-day division but missed calving within the 400-day limit by a few days. If she had calved in time she would have replaced Daisy as the champion.

All three sisters are good type animals as well as champion producers, Cherry and Lilly having been classified as "Excellent" and Daisy as "Very Good", the two top classifications for conformation.

The annals of the Holstein breed do not provide a parallel case, where so many records have been established by sisters.

Federal Health Grant Of $25,500 Given York County Unit

Federal health grants have recently been earmarked to pay half the cost of a new health unit in York county, and to finance a preventive dental service in neighboring Peel county, the minister of national health and welfare, Hon. Paul Martin, announced last week.

The York county health unit operates in 11 municipalities in the northern two-thirds of York county. The full-time staff includes a medical health officer, public health nurses and sanitary inspectors who are responsible for developing immunization programs against contagious diseases, organizing pre-natal and well-baby clinics and checking milk, water and food supplies to ensure purity and cleanliness. About 35,000 people live within the area of the new health unit. The federal grant toward the unit's operating costs in the current fiscal year will be approximately $25,500.

In Peel county, where a health unit has been already operating for some time, a preventive dental service is being added to the unit's activities with the aid of a federal grant of more than $11,000. When fully in operation, the dental program calls for an annual dental inspection of all school children, inspection of the teeth of children attending well-baby clinics and the development of an educational program to inform both children and adults regarding the care of the teeth and the avoidance of dental ailments. The federal grant covers the salaries of a dental officer, train-

Small House Plans

THE CRESTON features a full basement under the house and also provides a utility or service room for the side entrance. This utility room has two large closets, one for coats and one for house-keeping supplies, with storage above both and from it the kitchen, basement and bedroom hall can be reached. There is 8' of wall space which can be used for washer, ironer, or for a lavatory.

There are three bedrooms, a combination living-dining room, and a kitchen with a big dining space. The living room, entered through a vestibule, has a fireplace with low bookshelves and a corner picture window unit. Eleven closets are provided, including a large storage closet.

Because of straight, low walls, concrete blocks could be used instead of the frame construction called for in the plans. The dimensions of the Creston are 44' by 30'. Floor area is 1,294 sq. ft., while the cubage is 25,233 cubic feet.

Bob Petch Wins York Equipment, Driving Tests

The winner in the York County Junior Farmers' farm equipment project and safe driving competition was Bob Petch of Gormley who won out over six other competitors at the competition held at the East York plowing match on Nov. 1.

With the top young men from two previous driving tests competing, Bob, a member of the Vandroff club, had a very narrow win over Howard Plunkett from Vellore and gathered his necessary points by making the course in 10 seconds less time. In third place was George Craib also from the Vellore club while the other competitors were Gordon Brumwell, Gormley; Delmer Copithorne, Kleinburg; Harry Wright, Queensville; and Bruce Farr, Woodbridge.

Members who took part were required to write an examination related to farm machinery and tractor operation as well as complete a test of driving skill which was based on safety, accuracy and speed.

The winner will represent York County at the provincial finals to be held in Toronto in mid-January.

York Junior Plowmen Awarded Honors

The annual banquet of the York County Junior Farmers' home plowing competition held at Buttonville on Thursday night brought out a fine group of contestants and friends not only to enjoy a good dinner but also the public speaking and amateur entertainment contests to select representatives for the Ontario finals to be held in Toronto in January.

With four competing, Gladys Gingell of Agincourt was declared the winner by judges Mrs. Bowman of Newmarket, Mrs. Button of Stouffville and Mr. Bill Champion of Unionville. Other speakers were Jean Lewis of the Sharon club, George Hooper of Victoria Square and Ronald Paxton of Schomberg. In the amateur entertainment contest, Sharon nosed out the Unionville club.

In the home plowing, with the largest entry in several years, the MacGregor Trophy for the champion land went to Grant Wells of Stouffville who also won the Jack Fraser wrist watch for his class. The popular Eckardt Tea Service was won by Leslie Smith of Gormley for the best land in class 1 walking plows. The two Weston Lions Club bus trips were won by Edward King of Ringwood and Ellis Britton of Agincourt on best lands in classes 3 (walking plow) and 4 (tractor) while Andrew Watson in the boys' class took home the T. Eaton Tea Set and also the Jim McLean trophy for the best land by a boy or beginner.

In the special class for beginners with tractors Lorne Morton of Stouffville won the set of wrenches donated by Floyd Perkins of Richmond Hill and the ladies class produced an outstanding winner in Phyllis Wells who had the fifth highest scoring land in the whole contest to capture the silver cream and sugar service donated by Clarence Graham of Woodbridge. Winners of the J. A. Greene Specials for the youngest plowmen were: Douglas Graham, Stouffville; Carl Timbers, Stouffville; Bernard Taylor, Sharon; Jim Morton, Queensville.

President Stuart Watson of Agincourt presided for the banquet and the results of the competition were presented by assistant agricultural representative J. W. McCullough of Newmarket. Greetings from the township of Markham were tendered by Reeve Win Timbers and W. M. Cockburn lead a sing song with the assistance of Jack Devins and Mrs. Clarence Graham of Woodbridge.

The Woman's Auxiliary of St. James' church, Shaorn, met at the home of Mrs. Arthur Thomas on November 8 with a good attendance. The president, Mrs. F. Hall, was in the chair. During the devotional periods, prayers and Scripture lesson were read, followed by a chapter from the study book, "The Church and State in Pakistan" read by Mrs. M. E. Kiteley.

Orders were taken for the living messages and church calendars for the ensuing year. Nomination of officers for 1951 was held, election to take place at December meeting.

The annual bazaar, held on November 10, was a splendid success and thanks are extended to all who made it so.

WEDDING OF NOTE TO SUTTON, AURORA

A marriage of interest to Aurora and Sutton residents was the double-ring ceremony performed Saturday, Oct. 28, in St. Clair's church, Dwyer Hill, Ont., when Phyllis Margaret, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John E. McKenna, became the bride of F. Joseph Menton, son of Mrs. J. J. Menton, Aurora.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. J. Radley, P.P., in a setting of multi-colored 'mums. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a beautiful gown of mist white satin and shadow lace. The fitted bodice and long lily-pointed sleeves were of the lace and the portrait neck-line was offset by a dainty tulle edged bertha. A side panier effect of the lace fell over the flared satin skirt and extended to form a fishback above the sweeping train. Her full-length veil of tulle illusion was caught to a pearl Juliet cap. She carried a cascade bouquet of American Beauty roses.

The bride had two attendants, her sister, Miss Reta McKenna, Ottawa, gowned in lime green taffeta with matching headdress and with bouquet of bronze and yellow 'mums, and the groom's niece, Louise Blake, Bradford. Miss Blake's frock was of pink taffeta and she carried a nosegay of autumn flowers.

The groom's attendant was William Menton and the ushers were John Menton and Alphonsus McKenna. Mr. D'Arcy McKenna acted as Acolyte. The wedding music was played by John Joyce and the soloist was Joseph Kelly. Both are cousins of the bride from Enterprise, Ont.

Later a reception was held in the Ruby room of the Hotel Rideau, Smiths Falls. The bride's mother received the guests gowned in tricotina intermission, Canadian mink cape and yellow gardenia corsage. She was assisted by the groom's mother who chose wine crepe, navy blue accessories and corsage of talisman roses.

The bride wore a navy gabardine suit, maize yellow nylon blouse, four-skin mink scarf and brown accessories for the wedding trip to the Laurentians and Northern Ontario. Upon their return they will reside at 73 Electric St., Ottawa.

Haskett's HASH

BY GEORGE HASKETT
Newmarket Sports Editor

Spits tore into Bracebridge and vice versa Thursday as if a gold cup were at stake. Seems the O.H.A. must have struck the right idea in shooting along 25 certificates per team. Gonna need 'em all before spring rolls around at that rate of going.

No sooner we get both feet planted firmly on terra-firma after Thursday's wing-ding than Aurora B's and Newmarket junior C's have a double go at knocking each other out of the county and all but succeeding. Didn't take long for Hack Cain's and Joe Peat's sides to get the hang of the traditional Aurora-Newmarket feud.

For exhibition the boys really laid it on with elbows, body-checks, cross-checks and jabs. Fact is just stopped short of the donny-brook stage when referee Freddie Dillman called the scrappers over to the benches for a cooling off period. This corner didn't keep too close a tab on the scoring, but figured Aurora 5-3 and 2-1 victors. Both teams seemed to enjoy the rough going—and a chance to bop each other. Hack Cain and Joe Peat have battling crews.

The teams scrapped behind closed doors more or less. Was going to make the suggestion that they have a go at it again for public consumption—but with draw the motion before we become responsible for someone getting slaughtered. Of course we'd be hanging from a rafter if the two coaches in question or their boards of strategy broached the subject of a repeat home and home session. All we would suggest to the fans would be to get there early and bring whatever artillery was handy around the house.

Everybody works and everybody plays. Meeting Sunday cleared the air nicely on minor hockey. Roughly it's 15 teams to bring 'em along for the future. Break-down reads school leagues, four squirts and four pee wees running Saturday a.m.; a six-team bantam-midget set-up patterned along national hockey league lines. Don't bolt your door too tight, maybe somebody around to ask you to sponsor a team—cost approximately 50 smackers for sweaters and socks. Our hockey man about town, J. B. "Jim" Walker, indicates that he has a sponsor on the string for juveniles. Pretty well covers the situation. Add junior C, intermediate and four town league teams or a total of 21 teams and you get the idea arena is going to be a busy spot.

AFTER DEER WITH NOW
Last week The Era and Express gave out with a long list of local hunters off on their annual deer hunting expedition equipped with rifles. Have a report on a threesome of Harry Markham, Bob Chadwick and Orin Larsen who deign to use such modern methods and are doing their deer hunting as in days of yore with bow and arrow. They are located at Lemon Lake near the French River. They are doing their hunting with a number of archers from the Toronto district.

Four Teams Start In Metropolitan Loop

Four teams are definite starters in the Trolley League this season. The total may reach six pending advice from Brooklyn and Alliston. The latter were meeting Wednesday evening to settle plans for the coming winter. Four entries are Chas. Kewitree's Woodbridge club, Harold Rogers' Aurora "Indians", Naval Vets who hope to secure home ice at Keswick, and the fourth team, as suggested by the O.H.A., is Danforth-Dawes Combines, a senior B sextette from Scarborough district with home ice at Unionville. A further meeting is planned for Sunday in Aurora.

SUTTON GOES RURAL
"Sorry we won't be able to return to the Trolley League and O.H.A. competition this season," reported Ellis Pringle, coach of the Sutton "Greenshirts" on Wednesday evening. The Greenshirts will seek affiliation with the Tri-County Rural Hockey League. Opposition would probably be Keswick, Cannington and Oakwood.

KETTLEBY HOCKEY CLUB
Officers of the Kettleby Hockey club for this season are pres., Bill Hodgins; sec., Jack McDonald; treas., Bill Wassick. Bill Muirhead has been named manager and Ross Osborn is coach. The team operates in the King-Vaughan hockey league with opposition from Schomberg, Kleinburg and Nobleton.

Spits Take Bears 6-4 In Rough, Tumble Tilt

Spitfires and visiting puckmen from Bracebridge, otherwise known as Bears, put on a scrappy "to do" at the arena Thursday. The Spits, via a rousing three-goal rally in the final frame, made it two wins in a row in their early season exercises by downing the visitors 6-4.

Just about everybody got into the Spits scoring statistics. The goals were spread six ways with Don Smith doing the opener followed by "Fink" Tunstead, appearing for the first time, "Skip" Taylor, Joe Wolf, Myles McInnis and Normie Legge on the firing end. The assists were recorded in a similar pattern by Ken Thomas, Denny Labine, "Swiftly" Todd, Stan Gibbons, Don Smith and Bill Mabbett. Don Rowe was the Bears ace package with a pair of goals.

There was little or no let up to the general pattern of heavy bumping, boarding and high sticking. The climax came at the tail end of the middle frame when "Fink" Tunstead and Joe Peat (latter acting as the innocent peace-maker to start), along with

SPITS VS. MARKHAM

It's practically assured now that Newmarket "Spitfires" will be grouped with Markham, Stouffville, Toronto "Metros", Collingwood, Midland and possibly Owen Sound. Tonight will bring the crucial test for the Spits. They tackle the Markham "Millionaires" at the arena tonight at 8:30 in their pre-season conditioning games. Markham "Dollarmen", after scrimmaging with Stouffville over players, have signed on about all of last year's strong squad.

Walt and Pinder of the visitors drew five minute sentences. Earlier in the fracas, Denny Labine, our new recruit, and Downey, Bears right winger, squared off to renew a feud—a hold over from last season. All in all it looked like nobody loved each other and were out to prove it. Over 500 fans attended, a jump of 100 or more from the previous Thursday.

Coaches Trim Squads Put Result On Display

Coach Joe Peat of Newmarket junior C entry let the axe fall last week, chopping off some 20 odd players from his heavy list of trainees. Some 40 odd have been trying for an ice job since practices opened three weeks ago.

The team should draw a district following with six of last year's local juvenile entry forming the nucleus, nine are from Bradford area, three from Sutton and two from Uxbridge.

The net-minding chore is still a wide open affair with Howard Peterman, Tommy Hulme from Oak Ridge, and Bob Kearns, a Beetonite, battling for the post. Coach Peat has retained five defencemen for further work outs: Bob Hanna, a six footer from Bradford, Sid Beattie from Sutton along with Newmarket products Bob Groves, Bill McHale and LaVerne Firth.

Front liners invited back are four centremen, Keith Collings, Joe Gasko and Danny Flegel from Bradford district, and Aubrey "Pepper" Martin from last year's squad. Five left wingers are still in the hunt in Dave Couch from Holt, Murray McDonald and Ron Coveney, local puck cariers, Rod Black from Stroud and Dick Shannon from Sutton. Five portside shooters in Archie Forfar from Uxbridge district, John Gasko, Bob Veale, John Kamplin from Bradford and Bill McLaughlin from Sutton should halt any worries on that side of the ice lanes.

The club executive on the request of the town league teams have switched from Monday to Tuesday for home nights. The team will travel under the banner of Hoffman "Rockets".

LAKE SIMCOE LEAGUE
Outside the fact Vandorf is ready to step into the Lake Simcoe Hockey League there's little new to report on the organization of the league, says paces Longford Pegg. "I'll be contacting the other teams, Keswick, Queensville, Pine Orchard and Mount Albert, over the next week and get them together for the annual meeting." That Friday night at the Newmarket Memorial arena is still open at last reports if you wish to make an early start.

15 TEAMS TO PLAY IN MINOR LEAGUES

Just about everybody and anybody that can lace on a skate will have their chance to play hockey this winter. Newmarket plans a 15 team minor league set-up as a result of the Sunday minor hockey meeting held at the arena. The school league set-up will have four squirt and four pee-wee teams. The league will operate on Saturday mornings as in the past.

It was decided bantams and midgets would be banded together, captains selected and players divided into a six team league. The league would be patterned along National Hockey League lines each of the six teams selecting one of the N.H.L. teams for their name. All players would sign contracts that would have to be lived up to. The teams will play for the Russell Broadbent Trophy, but it was noted that several other trophies for the leading scorer, etc., would be required so any donations along this line would be welcome.

An all-star team from the bantam age players and an all-star team from the midgets would be selected to carry the Newmarket colors into the O.M.H.A. playdowns. The Optimist club will sponsor the bantam all-stars and the Recreation Commission the midget all-stars. J. B. "Jim" Walker indicated he had a sponsor in mind for the juveniles to complete the minor hockey picture. A further meeting is planned for later this week or early next week.

Chairman of the meeting was Jack Hamilton. Present were H. A. Jackson, Father T. J. McCabe, Deh, Cooper, Lorne Paynter, Freeman West, John Gunn, Frank Bowser, J. B. Walker, Dick Waller, Alf Elphinstone, H. Simmerson, Albert Linden, K. Hugo, Moe Hall, Russ Broadbent, Geo. Haskett.

AURORA TOWN LEAGUE

All players interested in playing in the Aurora town league are asked to be on deck at Aurora arena Friday night 9-11 p.m. All O.H.A. players are barred according to league rules.

RECEIVES CAR KEYS

Newmarket Legion committee chairman Fred Gardner handed the keys to the lucky ticket holder, Mrs. James Brown, Markdale, last Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Brown, who bought one ticket for the Legion car raffle at the Markdale fair during the summer, won the new Pontiac the same night their old model car broke down on a country road. A motorist pushed them home where the telephone was ringing to inform them of the new prize. Photo by Haskett.

Aurora Juniors Face Tough Season

The Junior B hockey schedule was drafted this week. Aurora juniors have been dropped into the toughest group in the series. On Friday nights, you will have the opportunity of seeing some great, crowd-pleasing games in Aurora arena, and if the Aurora team can hold its own, the club backers will get out of the red and the players can eat a melon.

A confiding team will pack the arena. The biggest crowds for junior hockey group games in Aurora came when teams like Owen Sound Greys, Barrie Colts, Midland and Kingsway were the opposition. District teams have always depended upon the play-offs to pull them out of the red in the past, but we say a fighting team with top-flight opposition can do all right over the season and satisfy the appetites of the fans as well. If we're wrong, we guess Jim Wall and Co. are too.

Well, here's the opposition that the Aurora lads will face: Weston Mariphas, sponsored by Toronto Maple Leafs and the feeder for the Mariphas Junior A club. Only player on the roster known to Aurora fans is Paul Jago, who played centre for Weston in C two years ago, 18 years of age, the tops of all players.

Unbeaten All season N.H.S. Wins North York Football Championship

To the accompaniment of a symphony of school yells Fred Spear's well drilled Newmarket high school gridiron forces carried off the North York Secondary Schools football league crown with a 6-0 victory over Aurora Tuesday at Pickering College sports field.

The win enabled Newmarket to complete an unbeaten season and wrap up the league championship in its first year of competition. Newmarket carried a 15-point advantage into Tuesday's contest by virtue of a 21-6 triumph in the first game of the home and home, points to count, series.

The opening play Tuesday set the stage for the Newmarket win, quarterback Jerry Hugo checked a forward pass to put sure-catcher Jack Vance into the clear and over the Aurora line for a major score. Jerry Hugo hooted the other Newmarket score a single point in the second quarter.

Frank Gregoire's Auroraans fought stubbornly, coming within a whisker of breaking the goose egg against them in the dying moments as they belied up on Newmarket three yard line but two attempts failed to crack the winners' strong defensive line.

In the opening contest played in Aurora Friday, Jerry Hugo set the Newmarket scoring pace in the 21-6 triumph by going over for two touchdowns on punting and pitching pay-off forward passes to Jack Vance and Alvin McKnight to round out the scoring.

Aurora opened with a slashing attack Friday as Don Busby kicked for a single point and Dave Crystale went over on an end sweep in the first quarter for a major score. That built the double-blue a 6-0 advantage but that faded before the Newmarket come-back.

Newmarket: flying wing, J. Stephens, Bill Big Canoe and John Learoyd for the attacking corps and Frank Charles a blueliner. Tried and proven material were forwards Jim "Skip" Taylor, Geo. Lamont and defencemen Keith Dunn, "Bud" Glibey and Andy Lonergan. New faces were the two netminders, Claude Macfarlane and Sam Robson, and front liners Clayton Brady and Dave Burrows.

At least three more possible additions are mentioned by Coach Pringle, Geo. Holborn, Ralph Griffith and Cros Brady. A further practice session is planned in the near future.

Aurora: flying wing, W. McGuire; halves, K. Ham, C. Ehrig, F. Lee; quarter, P. Hobson; centre, J. Langdon; guards, D. Harrison, J. Richards; tackles, D. Backley, J. Gilbert; ends, J. Hovey, C. Johnston; alts, J. Lawlor, W. Wray, J. Kincaid, D. Crystale, D. Munshaw, F. Harrison, N. VanNostrand, P. VanNostrand, W. McCatchen, R. Edwards, D. Busby.

Town Leaguers Open Up

The peaceful atmosphere that has existed in Newmarket sports circles since the ball season folded will be rent asunder once again Monday evening when the Town Leaguers leave friendship at home and spring back into action on the hockey cushion.

All four teams, Davis Leather, Town "Merchants", Office Specialty and Hoffman, are back for the jousting. Monday night's opener pits Hoffman vs. Davis and Office Specialty vs. Town "Merchants". First game in the doubleheader starts at 7 chimes and the nightcap at 8:30 p.m. on November 20, Hoffman vs. Davis, Specialty vs. Town; November 27, Specialty vs. Hoffman, Davis vs. Town.
